

Embassy of the United States

YOUNG SOUTHEAST ASIAN LEADERS INITIATIVE

YSEALI Professional Fellows

The YSEALI Professional Fellows Program is a professional development exchange program for the best and brightest community leaders from ASEAN, working in the fields of civic engagement, NGO management, economic empowerment, governance, legislative process, environmental and natural resources management. The YSEALI Professional Fellows Program provides participants a month-long fellowship at U.S.-based non-profit or other organizations, government offices or legislative bodies. Fellows will work with community leaders to enhance their practical expertise, leadership skills and professional contacts to address issues in their home communities.

For detailed information, please visit: <http://exchanges.state.gov/non-us/program/yseali-professional-fellows-program>

Call for application:

The U.S. Mission to Vietnam is pleased to announce three YSEALI Professional Fellows Programs 2015 (Deadline: December 1st, 2014):

YSEALI Professional Fellows on Legislative Process and Governance with ACYLP

For 48 years, the American Council of Young Political Leaders has designed, organized and managed unique international exchange programs for young political leaders worldwide. ACYPL programs are designed to promote mutual understanding, respect and friendship and to cultivate long lasting relationships among young people who are poised to become tomorrow's global leaders and policy makers. Visit the program's website at <http://acypl.org/exchanges/2015-professional-fellows-program/>

YSEALI Professional Fellows on Legislative Process and Governance with ICMA

International City/County Management Association (ICMA) was established in 1914 and is a nonprofit institution whose mission is to create excellence in local governance by developing and fostering professional local government management worldwide. ICMA has more than thirty international affiliations, and consults, trains, and collaborates with leaders from around the world to implement sound, innovative management and leadership practices in local governments, national ministries, academia, nongovernmental organizations and civil society groups in developing countries and emerging democracies. Visit the program's website at www.icma.org/fellowsapp

YSEALI Professional Fellows on NGO Development with the University of Montana

The Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center at The University of Montana promotes better understanding of Asia, U.S. relations with Asia, and ethics in public affairs. The Center houses programs that focus on the peoples and cultures of modern Asia and ethics in public affairs, the core interests and hallmarks of Senator Mansfield's career. For the fourth year, the Mansfield Center is honored to host the Professional Fellows Program of the U.S. Department of State. The focus for 2015 is Civil Society Development. The program is designed to promote mutual understanding, enhance leadership and professional skills, and build sustainable partnerships between emerging leaders from foreign countries and the U.S. Visit the program's website at <http://www.umt.edu/mansfield/internationalprograms/yseali-civil-society-development-fellows/default.php>

This site is managed by the U.S. Department of State. External links to other Internet sites should not be construed as an endorsement of the views or privacy policies contained therein.